

I have seen the impact directly with children. You do what you see being done this is the way children learn. I respectfully ask that the violence be removed from television at least prior to 11:00 pm. It does not take years of research to see this just have children of your own see what's on television

Thanks for your consideration in this matter.